

Eliminate a Second Mortgage

Written by Lucky
Monday, 23 May 2011 00:00

Like many others, you may be upside down in your home and have virtually no equity. Making monthly mortgage payments to both a first and a second mortgage company may be a daunting task for you and your family every month. On top of the mortgage payments you may be drowning in credit card or medical debt. Bankruptcy may be the solution to those problems as one very helpful tool of a bankruptcy can be eliminating a second mortgage.

If you are struggling with making multiple mortgage payments, call the Law Office of Anand “Lucky” Jesrani at 530-241-3350 for a free consultation. We will discuss options of eliminating the second mortgage against your home, avoiding foreclosure in the process of eliminating the second mortgage, and also discharging any other debt that you may have.

See the article from San Jose Mercury News (May 9, 2011) on this subject.